

St. John's United Church of Christ

A Blue Christmas Prayer

Merciful God, in this season of rejoicing, I come to you weary and grieving. In this season of feasting, I hunger for healing and relief. In this season of light, my heart is veiled in sorrow and shadow. Will this season ever end?

“Yes.” I hear your, “Yes.” Those who are weary will find rest. Those who mourn will be comforted. Those who hunger will be filled.

The Light shines in the darkness, and the darkness will not overcome it!

St. John's United Church of Christ

A Blue Christmas Prayer

Merciful God, in this season of rejoicing, I come to you weary and grieving. In this season of feasting, I hunger for healing and relief. In this season of light, my heart is veiled in sorrow and shadow. Will this season ever end?

“Yes.” I hear your, “Yes.” Those who are weary will find rest. Those who mourn will be comforted. Those who hunger will be filled.

The Light shines in the darkness, and the darkness will not overcome it!